

CURRICULUM VITAE

Annie MutioMutisya

Contact Address:P.O. Box 8441-00200 Nairobi

Cell Phone::0725503711

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATION

College Education

2013-2016: University of Nairobi, School of nursing

Bsc. Nursing

1998-2002: Kenya Medical Training College

Courses done

- General Nursing, Community Health Nursing including Family Planning,
- Kenya Expanded Programme of Immunization and Midwifery

1990-1993: Kilungu High School

Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education

1981-1989: Kee Primary School - Machakos District

Kenya Certificate of Primary Education

WORK EXPERIENCE

1994-1995: Untrained teacher at KinyuiGirls High School

1996-1998: Ophthalmic assistant at lighthouse for Christ eye centre and mission - Mombasa

Duties performed

- Taking care of patients pre-operative and post-operative eye surgery

1998-2002: Attached to Kenyatta National Hospital

Departments covered

- Medical department
- Surgical department
- Orthopedics department
- Pediatric department
- Maternity department
- Casualty department
- Maternal child health/family planning
- Theatre

HEALTH CENTRES FOR COMMUNITY HEALTH EXPERIENCE

March-May 2000: Kariobangi Health Centre

Rirura Health Centre

July - October 2001: Nyathuna Health Centre

Feb. 2002 - Jan 2003: Landmawe Medical Services and Side Lab

Feb. 2003 - To Date: University Of Nairobi Health Services

Nurse Manager – Sickbay Unit

Duties include

- Organization of the ward and running the clinic during clinic days ***
- Planning – making the duty rota for nurses in the ward and for the support staff and other ward activities
- Orientation of the new staff in the ward
- Supervision of junior nurses and the supportive staff
- Counselling of patients with various health needs so as to recover well and be able to achieve their goal in the university
- Nursing care of patients in the ward which involves:-
 - Administration of intravenous and intramuscular drugs to patients
 - Giving oral medication to patients
 - Taking of vital signs which include; temperature, blood pressure, respiration and pulse.
 - Ensuring patients have fed
 - Ensuring that the ward is neat and clean and well organized
 - Ensuring that linen is clean
 - Admission and discharge of patients
- Health education to patients especially patients with :-
 - Diabetes
 - Blood pressure
 - Tuberculosis
 - Asthmatic patients
 - Kidney disease and others.

OTHER COURSES TAKEN

23 Oct, 2017 Basic life support .

11th – 15th Dec 2017: Integrated tuberculosis curriculum

22nd July 2017: Nurses changing diabetes symposium. Topic covered:

- Overview of diabetic type I and II

- Diabetes management – oral and insulin therapy in type I and type II diabetes
- Diabetes education which included:
 - Exercise
 - Diet monitoring
 - Injection techniques
 - Devising handling
 - Diabetes foot care

11th – 13 Oct, 2016: Adherence counselling HIV/AIDS

31st- 2nd Sept, 2015: Case management training for the implementation of the national guidelines for the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of malaria.

Feb 2010: TB/HIV training courses

11th-13th Oct 2006: Adherence counseling training course 15th-19th

March - April 2005: Voluntary Counseling and Testing - Kenyatta National Hospital

Computers: Introduction to Windows, Ms-Word

HOBBIES

Reading Magazines

Listening To Music

REFEREES

1. Rebecca Wafula
Nurse Coordinator
University Health Services
P.O. Box 8657-00200 Nairobi
Cell Phone: 0720 708 250
2. Dr. Lucile Pamba
Medical Officer
University Health Services
Cell Phone: 0722 580 649
Nairobi
3. Dr Doreen Asimba
Ag Chief medical officer
University Health Services
P.O. Box 30197
Cell Phone: 0720 839106

Nairobi