EMPLOYMENT

UNIVERSITY OF NAIROBI, School of Law, Mombasa Campus Law Lecturer -February 2011 to date

Lecturer in Alternative Dispute Resolution, Law of Succession, International Economic Law, and Insurance Law.

- Over nineteen years' experience in International Law, Civil and Commercial litigation including Company Law, Conveyance, Alternative Dispute Resolution, Shipping Law, Banking, Insurance law, Land Law, Medical Negligence, Human Rights Law, Constitutional and administrative law, judicial review proceedings in the enforcement of administrative law; planning, building and environmental law; and public sector reform.
- I have acquired considerable experience in communication, presentation and networking skills; and ability to interact effectively with senior government officials and policy makers. I am experienced in computers, word processing, writing, drafting, research and analytical skills with the ability to review documents, especially major commercial contracts, agreements, leases, wills, mortgages, resolutions, etc.
- Over the years, I have built up vast experience and knowledge in litigation skills through my numerous court room appearances and through interactions with other lawyers. My experience has given me the ability to communicate with people efficiently and objectively.
- I consider my vast knowledge, background and experience to be an asset for any organisation that I work for. I am hard working and I take any work as a challenge and I am confident that I have developed the necessary skills to be effective in the legal field.
