PROFESSIONAL INTEREST

As a specialist dermatopathologist and pioneer on the same, I will endeavor to teach and promote the learning of skin pathology within the medical school, the country and the region at large for the benefit of patients. This shall be done through continuing scheduled sessions for pathology registrars and undergraduate students. I also do partner with Kenya association of clinical pathologists to offer teaching sessions to members and finally offer annual teaching sessions during the Africa Dermatopathology and Dermatology conference in Moshi, Tanzania.
