

Emily Jebungei Chesumei

Address: P.O Box 8657 –00200, Nairobi

Phone: +254 (0)722 973 984

Email: ebungeik@gmail.com

OBJECTIVE Have a positive impact in the health of individuals, communities and society

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY A healthcare professional with a track record of providing quality services with an emphasis in health promotion and disease prevention. Cumulative training and experience in the health sector has molded my skills and attitudes that promote evidence based practices, community sensitization and leadership as an agent of change.

WORK EXPERIENCE APRIL 2007 – DATE
Company: University of Nairobi
Title: Nurse In Charge (KRCHN B.Sc.N)
Unit: Sickbay, Senior staff clinic, students' clinic, satellite campuses

Roles:

- Organizing the unit's operations by ensuring availability and proper utilization of resources and commodities while maintaining official correspondences through memos and reports.
- Participate in planning activities such as; departmental management meetings, performance contracting and yearly procurement plan in addition to overseeing the achievement of the unit's targets.
- Supervision of staff, monitoring and evaluation of services and providing holistic nursing services following the nursing process concept
- Acted severally as the nurses' coordinator in the absence of the incumbent.
- Offering one on one and group health promotion /sensitization talks and services in specialized clinics such as maternal child health clinic
- Actively participated in HIV, alcohol and drug abuse sensitization campaigns for the department to the university community

MARCH 2005- MARCH 2007

Company: Compassion international, Urafiki CDC

Title: Project Health Nurse

Roles

- Ran a HIV/AIDS program and peer education activities
- Gave health education to both parents and children
- Conducted health screening for the children
- Organized and executed health campaigns
- Ensured healthy diet and environment at the project premises
- Did community health assessment and came up with some interventions
- Maintained correspondences with partners through memos, reports and proposals
- Assumed the responsibility of the project coordinator in his absence

EDUCATION

2011-2018

Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture & Technology

M. Sc. Public Health

1999 - 2003

University of Nairobi

B.Sc. Nursing

1994-1997

Sacho High School

Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education

1985-1993

AIC Visa Oshwal Primary School, Kabarnet

Kenya Certificate of Primary Education

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

Grand proposal writing, Trainer of trainers, Voluntary Counselling and testing, Microsoft Office packages and Statistical package for social sciences (SPSS),

COURSES

April 2018

University of Nairobi -Grant proposal writing

December 2017

Daystar University -Ministry leadership development program

October 2017

Red cross -Basic Life support

October 2017

Strategic Application International-SOP for management of Sexual Gender Based Violence

November 2009

National Hospital Insurance Fund -Quality Management

September 2008

Ministry of Health/ Government of Kenya -Commodity management

April- May 2007

African Regional Capacity Building Network on HIV/AIDS prevention, treatment and care (ARCAN) -Trainer of trainers for nurses

October 2005

Liverpool VCT –Voluntary Counseling and Testing course

HOBBIES

Hiking / nature walks, Dancing, Reading and socializing

REFERENCES

1. Dr. BEATRICE KIAGE

Senior Lecturer,

Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture
& Technology (JKUAT),

P.O Box 62200 -00200

NAIROBI.

Email – bettynyanchama@yahoo.com

Tel No. +254711641359

2. REBECCA WAFULA

Nurses' Coordinator,

University of Nairobi Health Services (UHS)

P.O Box 30197 - 00100,

NAIROBI.

Email – wbianju@uonbi.ac.ke

Tel. No. +254720908250