

FLORENCE CHEPCHUMBA NYOLE

Name: Ms. FLORENCE CHEPCHUMBA NYOLE

Qualification: Master of Architecture (M. Arch) University of Nairobi – Kenya (Ongoing)
Bachelor of Architecture (B. Arch.) University of Nairobi – Kenya (2009-2011)
Bachelor of Architectural Studies (B. A. S.) University of Nairobi – Kenya (2005-2009)

Date Appointed: 3rd July 2015

Grade/Post: Tutorial Fellow

Status: Tutorial Fellow

Responsibilities/subject taught
Architectural Studio BAR 313 & 314 - 2016/2017, 2017/2018
Architectural Studio BAR 213 & 214 2018/2019
Building Science 3: Acoustics BAR 308 2015/2016, 2016/2017, 2017/2018
Building Science 2: Daylighting BAR 206 2016/2017, 2018/2019

Current Professional Activities
Partner, Ecospace Architects
Private Architectural Practice
Architect: Design of Apartment block in Kabete, 2019
Architect: Church Design for Sironet Parish, 2018
Architect: Church Design for AIC Meteitei, 2017
Architect: Mara Girls Leadership Centre, 2016 (won award for best educational centre AAK Duracoat Awards of Excellence, 2017)
Architect: Design of Hotel in Mwingi, 2015
Architect: Various single dwelling residential units

Consultant Architect; African Wildlife Foundation, Classroom Africa Program

Vice Chairperson; AAK Architects Chapter 2017-2019
Council Member; East African Institute of Architects 2017-Date

Research activities

January 2017 – Date

Editor, The Architect Magazine and the Convention Magazine, AAK Publication

June 2015

History of Daylighting

Publication the research website; www.academia.com

May 2015

The Vertical Campus

An article published in The Architect Magazine Discussing the emerging retrofitting of University Campuses within Highrise buildings in Nairobi

August 2011

A Paper Presentation at the 2nd Annual East African Regional Workshop; Emerging Trends in Building Envelope Technologies; Transferable Technologies in Nairobi.

May 2011

Final Year Research Thesis; B. Arch 2010/2011, University of Nairobi; Emerging Trends in Building Envelope Technologies; A thermal comfort analysis for Nairobi.