Message from the Editor in Chief
Otieno-Ayayo, Z. Ngalo

Monitoring of radiofrequency radiation from selected mobile telephones in Kenya
Ombati, W., Kinyua, R., Mutuku, J. & Ogongo, C.

Biocontrol potential of selected plant essential oil constituents as fumigants of insect pests of stored food commodities

Evaluation of sweet potato processed products
Mkandawire, F.L, Onyango, J., Angwenyi, N. & Ogot, J.

The evaluation of a mixed methodological model to improve the productive and receptive skills in Spanish as a FL/SL: An experimental study
Livingstone, K. A.

“When youth said NO! Writing and reading youth’s initiatives in healing and reconciliation in the dramas of Austin Bukenya –The bride (1984) and Alex Mukulu -30 years of bananas (1993)”
Odhiambo, C. J.

Topic control in the market discourse
Obuchi, S.M.

Blacks origins of Mesopotamian civilization and education
Amayo, G. N.

Nasal consonant processes in standard Kiswahili
Iribemwangi, P.I.

Guidelines to Authors
The Editorial Board would like to recognize the kind gesture by dedicated peer reviewers who assisted in evaluating and reviewing the manuscripts that have been published in this issue. The same are here below listed, and we hope they will continue to support the dissemination of research-based information through BIRJ in future:

Dr. Caleb Rosado
Dr. Eunice Nyamasyo
Dr. P. I. Iribemwangi
Dr. K.N. Saxena
Dr. Maurice Odindo
Dr. Pharao Collins Sianangama
Dr. Takashi Okuda
Dr. T. M.O. Ayodo
Prof. Asaph Maradufu
Prof. Christopher J. Odhaimbo
Prof. Chris L. Wanjala
Prof. David M. Chipman
Prof. E.N. Emenyonu
Prof. Emily Akuno
Prof. Fred Keraro
Prof. Frederick Ochieng’-Odhiambo
Prof. Gershom Amayo
Prof. John Wesley Taylor
Prof. Karori Mbugua
Prof. Mary N. Getui
Prof. Mwakio P. Tole
Prof. P.N. Joubert
Prof. Stuart Smyth