

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. Lucy Wairimu Kabare
P. O. Box 30197, 00100 Nairobi
Telephone: 0722 889450
Email: lwkabare@uonbi.ac.ke

CAREER PROFILE

A consultant in Obstetrics and Gynaecology having 10years experience in the specific field and cumulative 19 years of practice in both clinical and surgical management of patients. I have admission rights in all the major hospitals in Nairobi. Work in a team and willing to play hands-on role in a demanding environment. Key player in curative and preventive care services especially in HIV/AIDS which is a major challenge in all disciplines of medicine. Currently laying strategy for cervical cancer screening starting with the less privileged.

Key skills

- Management and care of antenatal and postnatal mothers both out and in patients.
- Management of gynaecological patients out and in patients.
- Gynaecological and obstetric surgery
- Laparoscopic surgery
- Providing well woman care
- Management of general patients
- Accident and emergency management

Key qualifications and professional experience

Year	Event
2002-current	Obstetrician/gynaecologist – University Health Services Outpatient care for both staff and students – antenatal, obstetrics, gynaecological,. Family planning and general medical care Administrative duties - Currently in charge of performance contract at the health services and Chairperson Quality Assurance committee at the University Health Services Inpatient care for staff and students - Obstetrics, Gynaecological and related surgery
2002-current	Honorary lecturer University of Nairobi Obs/Gynae, Department. Giving lectures to undergraduate and postgraduate students, tutorials, exams, mentoring, surgical skills and supervision of students
1995-1999	Medical Officer – University Health Services General medical care for staff and students, minor surgeries and student inpatient care
1994-1095	Mbagathi District Hospital involved in the setting up of the casualty section including the Administrative duties Public outpatient and inpatient care including management of infectious diseases like tuberculosis
1993-1994	Medical Officer – Kenyatta National Hospital –worked in Casualty section and staff clinic mainly. Key skills obtained were in medical and surgical emergency care, efficiency in high workload requiring fast and accurate medical decisions often with minimal investigations and teamwork

1991-1993 Rift Valley General Hospital, Nakuru – Internship in general medicine, paediatrics, surgery and Obstetrics and gynaecology
 Medical officer of health – gained more experience in gynaecological and general surgery, general medicine and emergency care in the casualty department.

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

Year	School	Qualification
2011	Afya Bora Consortium	Fellowship in Global Health Leadership Key skills –management, leadership, mentorship, implementation science, monitoring and evaluation and health informatics
2011	University of Washington	Global Program management and leadership Key skills – management and leadership in health programs, team building, resolving conflicts in the work place and mentoring workers.
2006-2007	University of Nairobi	Post Graduate Diploma in STI
1999-2002	University of Nairobi	Master of Medicine (Obs/Gynae.)
1987-1991	University of Nairobi	M. B. ChB Degree
1983-1984	Nakuru High School	A Level – 14 points
1979-1982	Nakuru High School	K.C.S.E – 12 points
1971-1978	Beestons Primary School	C.P.E – 36 points

Short Courses

- Quality assurance training 17th –19th nov.2009.
- Leadership counselling and guidance in three levels April 2008-September 2009
- Comprehensive paediatric HIV Care course attended on 6th -10th February 2006
- Office Hysteroscopy attended on February 2005
- Course on the role of Anti-Retroviral Therapy in the Management of HIV/AIDS on 3rd - 4th April 2003
- Minilaparotomy under local anaesthesia course – 1991
- Training in minimal – access surgery (Endoscopy).
- Publications and presentations
 - Introducing cervical cancer screening in an informal settlement in Kenya – at the International AMREF conference on 19th April 2012
 - Incidence of wound sepsis after caesarean delivery and its impact in a district hospital. East Africa Journal – June 2005
 - The impact of colposcopy evaluation in the management outcomes of patients with abnormal cervical cytology; E. Africa medical journal - March 2006

Contribution to society

- Key player in introducing affordable cervical cancer screening in Kibera AMREF sites in 2011
- Often works with the University of Nairobi women society student leaders to enhance safe sex practices and enlighten on reproductive health.
- Coordinator of the medical programmes at the deliverance church Kasarani.
- Coordinator of a comprehensive VCT program to the community by the church.
- Estate member of women group welfare association, mainly addressing women empowerment programmes and social welfare.
- Giving of lectures to medical students in my discipline and supervision of post-graduate students.
- Open forum talks to university students and women groups on reproductive health

EXTRA CURRICULUM ACTIVITIES

Year	Event
2006 to date	Chairperson Estate Women's Welfare group
1997-1991	University of Nairobi – Played netball and participate in field events. Twice attained 1 st position in the Inter University Games competition in tract walk
1979-1984	Nakuru High School – Played hockey, netball and participated in field events.

Computer literacy

- Computer literate
- Excel, spread sheet, PowerPoint and office word

REFERENCES

Dr Stephen Ochiel
Department of UHS
University of Nairobi
P O .Box 30196
NAIROBI

Prof. Koigi Kamau
Dept. of Obs/Gyn.
University of Nairobi
P. O. Box 19696,
NAIROBI.

Prof. James Oyieke
Dept. Obs/Gynae
University of Nairobi
P.O Box 19696
NAIROBI