

AfriWatSan: Sustaining Low-cost, Urban
Water Supply and Sanitation Systems in Africa
www.afriwatsan.org

AfriWatSan Team at the 45th IAH Congress

IAH 2018, Daejeon, Korea - 9th to 15th September 2018

Africa Capacity Building Initiative supported by

THE
ROYAL
SOCIETY

THE TEAM AT THE CONGRESS

The Team's Activities

- Seynabou Cisse Faye – Chairperson for session T4.1 Sustainable management of groundwater resources.
- Oral Presentations
 - James Sorensen – Microbial characterisation of groundwater in urban environments of Kenya, Senegal and Uganda.
 - Simeon Dulo – Groundwater supply and sanitation challenges in developing countries.
 - Seynabou Cisse Faye – High frequency monitoring groundwater levels to inferring groundwater recharge using WTFs method
 - James Sorensen – Real-time fluorescence for the improved monitoring of microbial quality of drinking water.
 - Japhet Kanoti - Situational analysis of threats to groundwater quality in Lake Victoria Basin

Simeon and Japheth at the poster display

Japheth, Seynabu and Simeon at the podium